

I do not want to be contacted at my home by telephone marketers, and I want the opportunity to be on a privacy list with the strong protections that my state has enacted. I do not want the federal government to pre-empt state action with weaker legislation. It has been a pleasure not having my evenings interrupted by telephone marketers.